Q&A

WHAT DOES HOME MEAN TO YOU?

"A home creates a feeling of safety and security. It is a place of refuge from the outside world where you feel welcomed, comforted, and energized. A house is four walls and a roof, but a home emanates warmth and love based on the experiences and things within."

—Kelly Finley, Interior Designer

"Being an expat means my idea of home is somewhat complicated. L.A. is the home I chose, but I still think of the U.K. as home, too. What connects the two is a sense of belonging, familiarity and comfort—and of course being around loved ones."

—Amy Bartlam, Photographer

"Home can mean a lot of things, but for me it means sanctuary and being grounded in a space that can help cancel out the noise of the world. It's comforting and the soul of who I am at that moment."

—Linda Hayslett, Interior Designer

"Home is family. Home is friends. I absolutely love to nest, and my home is a visual expression of everything I love in life."

—Rich Pedine, Publicist

"I've found a new appreciation for what home means to me recently, as I've been spending the majority of my time there. To me, home means comfort, physically and mentally. Being home so much has given me an appreciation for my community, which I miss, and has allowed me to slow down and appreciate my immediate surroundings."

—Christopher Dibble, Photographer
